BikeCNY and OCC shared a table at the Westcott St. Fair on Sunday, Sept. 23 from noon to 6 pm. I was there from noon to 3:30 pm and then Bob Spear took over. I expected a couple of people to stop by. Instead, while I was there, there was a constant stream of people, especially ones eager to get into the sport, asking for information about the club and rides; many were pleased with the fact that we offered novice rides. We had ride schedules, brochures and application forms at hand. The ride schedules especially seemed to be rather much sought after. There seemed to be a genuine interest in cycling. Hopefully we will see more cyclists on the road soon.

The Board-appointed committee to look into issues related to advocacy solicits your input. Suggestions are welcome and should be addressed to any of the members (Gianfranco Vidali, Marcello Pratico, Anne Diekema and Sam Sempere).
